

I am in favor of the ARRL's proposal with regard to amateur radio licensing. I feel that this is the most reasonable and will best serve the goals of amateur radio now and in the future. In my opinion morse code is a mode of operation like any other mode, and deserves the same testing as all other modes.
Thanks you, Mark reichow (KI4CJM)